Why Tritan Renew is a game-changer.

Tylla's lids are made with Tritan Renew, one of the most innovative materials on the market.

What is Tritan Renew?

It's a sustainable material made with 50% recycled content. It retains the durability, safety, and crystal clarity of the original Tritan.

How is it different from Tritan?

The Renew version incorporates hard-to-recycle plastics, diverting waste from landfills. By using a molecular recycling process, we reduce CO₂ emissions by 20 to 30%.

Why should it matter to you?

Tritan Renew is safe for food contact: it's BPA and phthalate-free, and certified by EU & FDA standards. It's also durable, has a lower environmental footprint, and supports a circular economy without compromising on quality or style.

RECIPE

Butternut orzo with wild mushrooms

INGREDIENTS FOR 1

75 G orzo pasta
150 G butternut squash, peeled and diced into small cubes
1 small shallot, finely chopped
1 clove garlic, minced
150 G wild mushrooms, e.g. chanterelles or oyster mushrooms, cleaned

1 TSP honey
1/4 TSP dried oregano
2-3 fresh sage leaves, finely chopped
2 TBSP ricotta
1 zest of 1/4 lemon
1 TBSP roasted walnuts, chopped
1 TSP olive oil
PINCH salt and pepper

- ✓ Prepare the butternut squash. Heat a drizzle of olive oil in a skillet over medium heat. Add the diced butternut squash and cook until soft and lightly caramelized, about 8 to 10 minutes. Remove from the skillet and set aside.
- ✓ Sauté the mushrooms. In the same skillet, heat a bit more olive oil over high heat. Add the chopped shallot and garlic, and sauté for 1 to 2 minutes until fragrant. Add the mushrooms and cook on high heat until browned and tender, about 5 to 7 minutes. Season with salt and pepper. Set aside.
- ✓ Toast and cook the orzo. In a separate pan, toast the orzo over medium heat with a drizzle of olive oil until lightly golden. Add honey, oregano, and sage, and stir to coat. Season with salt and pepper. Add a small splash of water, cover, and let simmer until the orzo is cooked al dente and slightly caramelized, about 8 to 10 minutes. Add more water as needed.
- ✓ Make the ricotta spread. In a small bowl, mix the ricotta with olive oil and lemon zest. Season lightly with salt.
- ✓ Prepare the garnish. Chop the roasted walnuts and fresh sage leaves.
- ✓ Assemble the dish. In your Tylla bowl, arrange the cooked orzo as the base, then add the sautéed mushrooms, caramelized butternut squash, and dollops of the ricotta spread. Sprinkle with roasted walnuts, fresh sage, and a touch of lemon zest. Prefer to keep everything separate? Use your Rikko lunchbox instead.
- ✓ EXTRA: Like it spicy? Add Fumado hot sauce from SWET for the ultimate smokey kick
